

BE A POWER PLAYER AS A
SUBSTATION
TECHNICIAN

MISSOURI VALLEY

Line Constructors Apprenticeship & Training Program

SUBSTATION
TECHNICIANS play a vital role in ensuring that businesses, institutions and homeowners have the electrical power needed to maintain their operations.

YOUR APPRENTICESHIP TRAINING PROGRAM will prepare you for all aspects of this exciting and rewarding career.

CAREER AT A GLANCE

What skills and knowledge are needed?

Your success as a substation technician will be dependent on your knowledge of electricity, physical strength and stamina, ability to work in nearly all weather conditions, and technical capacity to understand drawings and diagrams. The Missouri Valley Line Constructors Apprentice & Training Program is the best and most respected way to learn these skills.

What type of certification will you earn?

This is a Department of Labor-(DOL) approved apprenticeship. Upon graduation you will receive your DOL certification and journeyman substation technician's ticket.

What are your career prospects as a substation technician?

With proper training and ongoing education, substation technicians can advance to supervisory positions. With further education, technicians may move on to project management roles and support for manufacturers or suppliers.

Where will you find work?

Substation technicians work in all areas, including cities and rural areas.

“There’s a certain sense of pride knowing that I am playing a vital role in keeping the lights on for homeowners and businesses in my community.”

-Nick

How much will you make?

Substation technicians have the potential to make a minimum of $70,000 per year based on experience and workload. That’s in addition to the attractive benefit packages substation technicians receive. You’ll begin earning that wage when you start your apprenticeship training program.

What is the job outlook?

As long as individuals and businesses need electrical power, there will always be a need for highly trained and dedicated substation technicians.

START YOUR CAREER AS A SUBSTATION TECHNICIAN TODAY AND GET PAID FOR IT!

Unlike other career opportunities that require years of school and experience before you can land the job you want, and unlike college that requires a substantial financial investment, our programs allow you to earn a high wage while gaining the experience and knowledge needed to succeed as a substation technician. After completion of this program, you will be proud to say that you are a substation technician from Missouri Valley.

Climb high with Missouri Valley Line Constructors Apprenticeship & Training Program. Visit www.movalleyjtc.org for complete details.

1707 North 14th Street | Indianola, IA 50125
P: 515.961.5062 | F: 515.961.7332 | TOLL FREE: 888. 254.0714
www.movalleyjtc.org

Since 1941, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) and the National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA) have partnered to train electrical construction professionals. Missouri Valley Line Constructors is proud to represent this partnership in the upper Midwest states of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

Missouri Valley Line Constructors Joint Apprenticeship and Training Trust Fund admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded to made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, nationality and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship, loan programs and athletic and other school-administered programs.

